

Dear ,

We are happy to welcome the new opening of the first in-airport hotel at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport in Nairobi.

Guests arriving in the evening or night before their safari, do not even need to leave the premises and they can fly straight to the Serengeti early the following morning.

Together with our daily bi-directional connection between Nairobi and the Serengeti and our extensive network, you just have to arrive at the international airport, Coastal Aviation can fly you through the rest.

Best regards
The Coastal Flying Safari Team
